around the Theater doors awaiting the building of the pen or passage-way to the box office, which would be ready by 12 o'clock. entrance to the wooden passage-way would be located. At once twenty-six men and boys, white and colored, formed in a line or o sit upon, and located themselves comfor sh steamship Persian Monarch, but left the ably, and at once prepared to stay all night. The formation of the line was made in quite an orderly manner, and by 12 o'clock others dropped into line. By this morning the line will no doubt extend out to Third street or further, until the sale of seats will commence. The man who secured the first position in the queue lost it by getting drunk and becoming disorderly. He was at once arrested and taken to the stationhouse. He had been given a bottle of drugged whisky, which soon affected him and caused his trouble. This morning at 9 o'clock the fun will commence. A force of policemen will be present to pre-
